Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,
[illegible] KEARNEY [illegible] COMMERCIAL, [illegible] in 1854, [illegible] Syphilis [illegible] Ulcerated Legs [illegible]

Horrible Disease.

[illegible] of persons, both male and female, [illegible] who are suffering out a miserable existence [illegible] the Facts of [illegible] indulgence or from [illegible] Look at their pallid, [illegible] sunken eyes and their broken down [illegible] destroying them for the happiness of [illegible] of life. In this horrid situation [illegible] the scene [illegible] suffering with [illegible] life-destroying malady [illegible] for and cured before it be too late. Send [illegible] Dr. Gibbon, a physician who has [illegible] his especial study for years and who [illegible] to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury [illegible] or any injurious drugs. It is important to those [illegible] who are interested in the [illegible] to be careful of the many pre[illegible] who infest all cities publishing their skill [illegible] in a few days imposing upon the [illegible] the names of eminent physicians from [illegible]. Be therefore careful and make [illegible] you may fall into the hands of those [illegible]

[illegible] Sexual Weakness.

[illegible] the consequence of self-abuse. This [illegible] vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practiced [illegible] to an almost unlimited extent, [illegible] with certainty the following train [illegible] combatted by scientific medicine [illegible] viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under [illegible] in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like [illegible] and rattling of chariots [illegible] of the limbs, confused vision [illegible] loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching [illegible] a dislike to form new acquaintances [illegible] to shun society, loss of memory, hectic [illegible] and various eruptions about the face [illegible] followed by [illegible] coughs, consumption, night [illegible] and frequent insanity. If relief be [illegible] apply immediately either in person [illegible] and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of [illegible] a quick and radical cure. Dr G. will give One [illegible] Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily [illegible] that he was cured of this complaint by other [illegible] quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

[illegible] who contemplate marriage, who are suffering [illegible] any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the [illegible] resting upon them nor delay to [illegible] sure relief.

DR. GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each [illegible] instrument binding him to effect a [illegible] permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

[illegible] at a distance may be CURED AT HOME [illegible] ing a letter to Dr. Gibbon stating case, symptoms, [illegible] length of time the disease has continued and have [illegible] medicine promptly forwarded, free from damage and [illegible] curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain [illegible] for use, for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter [illegible] through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

[illegible] Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders [illegible] with bogus sworn to certificates, trap the unwary [illegible] of the self-styled doctors whose names are to be [illegible] in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco [illegible] and other places are tradesmen and [illegible] to work at their trades. [illegible] are [illegible] office keepers [illegible], newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers [illegible]. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you [illegible] not find their Medical Institute [illegible] at the Directory [illegible] their former occupations [illegible] for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition [illegible] is to make enquiry — it [illegible] advertising physicians [illegible] save you many regrets [illegible] there is no [illegible] in eight cases out of ten [illegible] know who and [illegible] in trusting any [illegible] people by [illegible] that they are. Dr Gibbon [illegible] patent [illegible] exhibiting bogus diplomas [illegible] may [illegible] etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy [illegible] at his office of his ability [illegible] diseases that he [illegible] to cure.

DATES TO JANUARY 24

Congressional

WASHINGTON, Jan 22—In the House, Kelley [illegible] introduced a bill to establish [illegible] Montana and to convert the [illegible] gold and silver bullion [illegible] Referred to the coinage committee.

Griswold introduced a bill [illegible] Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means. [illegible] for all [illegible] 181,000. A certain portion [illegible]

The House resumed the consideration of the [illegible] Railroad bill [illegible] substitute [illegible] the bill. After some [illegible] the subject went over for a day.

The Speaker announced that [illegible] Mr Boutwell [illegible] call up his proposed amendment to the Constitution in respect to suffrage.

During the day the death of Hinds, member from Arkansas, was announced. After eulogies by members of the Arkansas delegation the House adjourned.

In the Senate the President presented the credentials of James A. Bayard and Thomas F. Bayard as Senators elect from Delaware.

Drake, by unanimous instruction from the Committee on the Pacific railroad, reported and asked for the immediate consideration of a resolution declaring it inexpedient for Congress to authorize any subsidy in government bonds to any railroad enterprise not entitled to subsidy under existing laws. Edmunds objected and the resolution went over.

Pomeroy, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill to grant lands in aid of the construction of the Railroad from the Mississippi river to Yankton on the Missouri, and the bill transfers the grants to the McGregor and Sioux railroad.

Stewart introduced a bill relative to refining gold and silver bullion at the Mints. The bill authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to receive refined gold and silver bullion on deposit at the mint and in payment thereof to deliver imported bars at such rates as the Director of the mint may prescribe.

Frelinghuysen addressed the Senate relative to Morton's argument on the bill to punish the collection of illegal taxes on passengers.

At the expiration of the morning hour Wilson offered a joint resolution to strike from the rolls of the army officers absent without leave.

Wilson offered a joint resolution reappointing Agassiz Regent of the Smithsonian Institute. Passed.

Howard, from the Pacific Railroad Committee, reported a joint resolution directing the Secretary of the Treasury to receive and withhold from the Union Pacific and from each of its branches government bonds to the amount of $3,000 per mile as security for the completion of the several lines according to the provisions of the laws, to be reserved until the President shall certify that the roads are so completed that fact to be determined by special Committee. The resolution was laid on the table. The Senate resumed consideration of Sherman's railroad bill, which, after an amendment, passed yesterday and now came up merely as a bill to authorize the construction of a railroad from Washington to New York. Pending the question there was an amendment offered by Doolittle to require the consent of the Legislatures through which the road shall pass. Doolittle addressed the Senate, opposing the bill on constitutional grounds. He said the bill proposed a system of legislation which would subject the Government to the control of mammoth corporations having neither bodies to be kicked nor souls to be damned. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Jan 23—In the Senate a joint resolution was passed, giving old cannon for a monument to the late President Lincoln.

Mr Stewart moved to take up his joint resolution to amend the Constitution relative to suffrage and moved to make it the special order for Thursday next, which after some discussion was agreed to.

Mr Cameron moved for an executive session which was rejected by 26 to 27. This was supposed to feel the state of the Senate relative to confirming the appointments sent in by President Johnson.

The Senate agreed to the House amendment to the resolution respecting the provisional governments in Virginia and Texas. The resolution directs the removal from office of all persons who cannot take the required oath.

The air line railroad bill came up as unfinished business. Mr Pomeroy moved to postpone it for the purpose of taking up the bill relating to the central branch of the Union Pacific Railroad, which was agreed to by 33 to 15. The bill was debated till half past three, when the death of Representative Hinds was announced and after some eulogies the Senate adjourned.

In the House after the introduction of several bills of no general importance Mr Boutwell called up the constitutional amendment bill in regard to suffrage and made an elaborate speech. He said this was the last great measure of reconstruction. When the right of suffrage was secured to all citizens the Republic would be established on a firm basis. It was impossible for this Congress or the Republican party to escape that issue. Mr Boutwell explained the provisions of the amendment which have already been telegraphed, claiming the right of Congress to legislate on the question of suffrage independently of any action on the part of the States. He quoted Patrick Henry and President Madison to sustain his views. His argument lasted two hours, occasionally interrupted by questions from the Democratic members. He concluded by saying that the Republican party must not stand where it is but must move forward to complete the great work it had undertaken.

TUESDAY MORNING JAN 26 1869

The Wisdom of Twenty Years Ago

Professor Morse, at a banquet [illegible] him in his [illegible] at New York on the 29th December, in [illegible] to the toast of the evening, gave a most interesting review of the growth of the telegraph. In the course of his remarks he brought forward a reminiscence which [illegible] was probably news to the present generation. This statement was to the effect that thirty years ago he offered the telegraph to the Government, to be used in connection with the post office [illegible]. This was in 1837, and Professor Morse made the proposition to the Secretary of the Treasury, then the late Judge Woodbury. The Secretary seconded the proposal in a letter to the Speaker of the House, and it was repeated in a letter to the Chairman of the House Committee on Commerce. It was again proposed by Hon G C Ferris, who in his report said

> So inviting are the prospects of profit to individual enterprise that it is a matter of serious consideration whether the Government should not on this account alone seize the present opportunity of securing to itself the regulation of a system which if monopolized by a private company might be used to the serious injury of the Post Office Department, which could not be prevented without such an interference with the rights of the inventor and of the stockholders as could not be sustained by justice or by public opinion

How it happened that the Government did not then accept the telegraph, which they might have secured for $100,000 may be gathered from another of Professor Morse's reminiscences, in which he gave an account of the reception of his invention by Congress. A bill for aid to test the telegraph came up in the House in 1843, whereupon Mr Cave Johnson, of Tennessee, proposed that half the proposed appropriation should be given to a charlatan, who was practising pretended mesmerism at the time. Mr Houston thought Millerism should be included in the appropriation; and finally, after some buffoonery, an amendment was read, as follows

> Provided, That one-half of the said sum shall be appropriated for trying mesmeric experiments under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Of course the bill was killed, and no doubt Messrs. Cave Johnson, Houston & Co thought they had done a very smart thing. In 1845 Cave Johnson was Postmaster General, and though an experimental telegraph line had been for some time in operation between Washington and Baltimore, this astute official and able legislator reported that "the operation of the telegraph between this city and Baltimore has not satisfied me that under any rate of postage that can be adopted, its revenues can be made equal to its expenditures."

Such, says the San Francisco Times, was the wisdom of our ancestors, nay, of our [illegible], for this occurred a little more than twenty years ago. Yet, doubtless, this Mr. Cave Johnson was a very important personage in his own [illegible], and filled a large space in the eye of the public. With such [illegible] as those before us, we can scarcely afford to [illegible] that have been published concerning the Elijah [illegible] of American legislation.

A large part of the landed property of California is, at this day, locked up in vast grants with no [illegible] boundaries, [illegible] for people to settle near them, and this condition of things has [illegible] the [illegible] of [illegible] State. But now, when [illegible] and [illegible] has been pretty well [illegible], the California papers [illegible] evil in [illegible] its place. The speculating monopolists [illegible] have covered hundreds of thousands of acres of the best lands [illegible] with bounty warrants and other [illegible] to favor such monopolists, [illegible] the [illegible] of the State to men [illegible], and [illegible] them [illegible]" as the Sacramento Union [illegible], "from the [illegible] into [illegible] Territory."

Those who come this way will find cheap lands and [illegible], and if they come within such time as will enable them to get possession of good lands at low prices and have the benefit of the increase in value which is sure to take place ere long, they could not do a wiser thing. A leading California journal presents the land question in a way which certainly shows it in a very unfavorable light for that State

> The General Land Office report gives but 44,240 acres of land actually settled in California during the year 1867, less than 280 quarter sections, while for the same year Nebraska showed 224,000, Idaho [illegible], Washington Territory 30,000 and Minnesota 154 000 acres. That year the speculators covered in California 255,558 acres of land with bounty land scrip and other contrivances—an amount greater by 60 000 acres than any other State, and nearly six times as great as Minnesota. But that was nothing to the speculations of last year, which can hardly have monopolized less than two millions of the very best acres in the State, raising the price to settlers from $1 25 an acre to at least $10 in gold. For these [illegible] we are indebted to the far reaching genius of San Francisco, which dreams of becoming the great city in the world by oppressing the business and dreading the interior of population. It is a brilliant policy which through the "land ring" is rapidly peopling all the States of the West and the Northwest at our expense, and through the railway "ring" is making Chicago the banker of White Pine and Silver City, and the importer for all of Utah and Idaho and more than half of Nevada. It is working some of the greatest wonders of this wonderful age, having already succeeded in removing the Sierra Nevadas at least 1 000 miles eastward from the Pacific ocean and that without the least enlargement of this State

DODGING FOR LIFE. The Herald is greatly disgusted because only a few Democrats in Congress could muster up courage to vote for Johnson's scheme. It thinks the renegades ought to be kicked out of the party and bold, positive men, that is to say men who would go the whole figure for repudiation advanced to the leadership. We suppose Vallandigham and Wade Hampton would suit but the people have a habit of defeating this class of men. The Herald says its party is sadly in [illegible] of a leader. Yes and this is not its only want. It needs an additional force of followers. And these followers it will never have while its journals talk as the Herald does. The Herald complains that even Senator Hendricks dodged the vote on the occasion alluded to. Hendricks was wise. He knew that his party was defeated while advocating partial repudiation; what could he expect would be its fate if it should come down to Johnson's dishonorable proposition? Repudiation in any form is just as odious as secession ever was, and though the Democratic members of Congress would like to stand up to it, their fears teach them the cowardly resource of dodging as Hendricks did. They think it better to dodge than to be annihilated. They are dodging for life

AREA OF CALIFORNIA. The Sacramento Union thinks the usual estimate of the area of California is about 12 000 square miles too small. It estimates the area of the State at [illegible] 000 square miles

Palpitating Anxiety

"To our next President all the loyal [illegible] of their country are looking with anxious eyes and hearts palpitating with the most [illegible] anxiety. Can General Grant save our country and restore it to its former glory?"

Nowadays we frequently meet with such paragraphs as this. It would be quite unnecessary to say that this specimen comes from a sheet intensely Democratic. The true signification of such remarks it is not difficult to divine. Indeed it would be impossible to miss their meaning.

The writer means that his party is watching with intense anxiety for indications that General Grant means to falsify the record he has made, to betray and endeavor to destroy the party that has advanced him to the station he occupies and repeat Johnson's attempt to revive the Democratic party and make it victorious. The hope that he will take this course and the eager watching for the first signs of the treachery are the causes of the palpitation which the writer quoted speaks of. The question "Can Gen Grant save our country and restore it to its former glory" simply means "Can he bring the Democratic party back to life, restore it to power and enable it to reverse all that has been done during the last eight years?" They who but a short time ago were so bitterly maligning General Grant could now have no possible interest in speculating upon the probabilities of his future course if they did not hope he would repeat Andrew Johnson's treachery. They are needlessly anxious. Grant talks too little to take anything back

THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT. The Supreme Court of California has affirmed the constitutionality of the civil rights act. In the suit decision Chinese testimony was held inadmissible against a negro under a State law. The civil rights act gives a negro the same civil rights as a white man, and as the statute of California forbids Chinese testimony against whites, such testimony cannot be admitted against negroes. The case before the court did not permit a full inquiry upon all points that might be raised in connection with a matter of this kind but the Court intimated that the injustice to the Chinese might be remedied under the fourteenth amendment, which goes a step further than the civil rights act, and declares that "no State shall deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws." The Bulletin remarks that "it is clear that if a case squarely presenting this question, can be brought before the Supreme Court of California it will decide the exclusion of Chinese testimony to be invalid, and will break down at once and for ever, the barbarous logic which invokes an act framed to prevent unjust discriminations among citizens on account of race or color as a shield to cover such discriminations against foreigners

WOOL CROP OF THE PACIFIC.—The Wool Circular of the San Francisco Wool Exchange states that the receipts of California wool in that city for 1868 amounted to 14 232 [illegible] pounds, against 9,607,825 in 1867. The wool received from Oregon amounted in 1868 to 491 460 pounds, against 577,325 pounds in 1867. The value of the California and Oregon wool received at San Francisco in 1868 was $2,641,800, against $1,865,571 for the clip of 1867. Of the [illegible] 14,653 517 pounds received from those two Pacific States in 1868, there were exported 13,225 181 pounds. The decrease of the exportation from this State is undoubtedly due to the fact that a much larger quantity of our wool has been manufactured in our mills than ever before, and this home manufacture is steadily increasing. The Circular states that "very fine wooled sheep cannot be looked upon as the class suited to the dry climate of California." The superiority of Oregon wool has long been known, and we have only to produce it in great quantities to make this superiority generally acknowledged.

THE THIRD MAN.—Some of the Copperhead papers of California "hear from the best authority" that Gen. Grant has "formally tendered the position of Secretary of War to Hon J. W. Nesmith of Oregon." This is the third man whom the Copperhead press have put into Grant's Cabinet as Secretary of War. The first was Jeff Davis, the second was McClellan and the third is Nesmith. This probably indicates the rank which these three persons hold in the affections of the Democracy. Jeff. Davis, on account of his great services, naturally has the first place. McClellan has the next because he did not take Richmond, and Nesmith has the third because he has so grossly maligned and vilified Grant. These Copperhead papers think of course that Nesmith is just the man to go into the Cabinet of the President whom he has characterized as a "drunken Democrat."

A FAIR OFFER.—We observe that our neighbors of the Democratic press are still mightily exercised about a remark of ours that "all who cannot keep ahead of the 'inferior races' are doomed to fall behind." Well, do they doubt the assertion? Can they produce a white man who will confess his inability to keep ahead of the "inferior races?" But we forget our neighbors are virtually confessing this themselves. Now if they will own up in direct terms that they cannot stand up against negro and Chinese competition we promise to use our best efforts to have a Bureau organized on the principles of the late Freedmen's Bureau, for their protection. Come neighbors! Either accept these terms or stop whining that you are afraid the "inferior races" will get ahead of you!

EXCELLENT PAPER.—The California Christian Advocate has been greatly enlarged and has adopted the sixteen page form. It presents a very fine appearance as a religious weekly and is edited by Dr Benson formerly of the Oregon Advocate. The religious press of San Francisco including such papers as the Advocate, the Pacific, the Occident &c has attained an excellence that will compare favorably with any of the Eastern publications of their class.

LIFE VS LETHARGY.—The Stockton (Cal) Independent makes this cut at the capitalists of San Francisco: "It is reported numerous wide awake drummers of enterprising Chicago wholesale houses are already in San Francisco, bearding the dry way [illegible] of our metropolis in their very dens, by [illegible] the trade [illegible] retailers. Think of that and weep for home stupor while you admire Chicago's energy and audacity."

The Honolulu papers bitterly complain of an article published in the Overland Monthly for December entitled "Social Life in the Tropics," in which it is asserted that the people of the Islands are grossly caricatured and maligned

Homer is supposed to have been the first to notice the Grecian bend in the following lines from the text book of the Iliad

Lo here the wretched Agamemnon stands
The unhappy general of the Grecian bands
Whom Jove decrees with daily cares to bend

There are in Oregon [illegible] quartz mills supplied with 111 stamps and a large number of arastras, the cost of the whole having been about $160 000. The extent of water ditching reaches 165 miles—cost $275 000. About one half of the quartz mills in this State are driven by water, being a larger proportion than in California or any other portion of the Pacific coast

Say the [illegible]: It is not generally understood in this part of the country, from what standpoint [illegible] is viewing the question [illegible] to be able [illegible] of the [illegible] of any [illegible] being achieved by the calling together of a riotous ring of irresponsible ruffians. It will certainly have to be solved by Democratic philosophy

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, 10 P M, Jan 25—Dispatches to officers of the Central Pacific Railroad announced Saturday afternoon that the last 500th mile of the track is laid. This brings the track forty miles beyond Reno. The last rail will probably be laid by the 15th of April. The Union Pacific Railroad Company completed their one thousandth mile of their road last week

SPOKANE BRIDGE, Jan 17, 1869

EDITOR OREGONIAN

We have had an unusually mild winter thus far for this high northern latitude. Very little snow during the winter, the depth on this prairie not exceeding four inches and at my present writing the ground is not quite covered, but about Pend d'Oreille City and Cabinet Landing, there is from two to four feet of snow. There has been very little good sleighing or sledding on the prairie this winter, and now that the winter is so far spent there is little apprehension for the remaining months

The excitement over the new mines in the Kootenai country on Perry creek, runs high hereabouts, and the most of the loose men here will wend their way thither in the spring. There are some miners wintering here, and quite a number in the Bitter Root valley and about Hell Gate and Deer Lodge, all of whom intend trying their luck in the new camp when spring opens

I cannot say how extensive these new mines are, they were discovered so late in the fall, but I am firmly of the belief that it will result in the discovery of good paying diggings in that country even if the camp last found should disappoint the expectations of those most confident now. Those who have been to the new camp anticipate a bright future for that locality. It is to be hoped that they will reap a golden harvest, because judging from the number of broken men who came down from Montana last fall, the Blackfoot country is pretty well played out, and many is the restless eye that is cast around in search of a favorable spot for the luckless miner to pitch his tent wherein he can cogitate upon his past follies and build air castles for the future

One encouraging feature about the new camp is, the miners who left there last fall are all eager to return, so confident are they that that is the future locality for business. The old camp of Kootenai is pretty well worked out and many of those who have worked in the old camp have taken claims in the new

At last accounts bacon was retailing at 75 cents per pound, flour $25 per hundred, sugar 62½ cents, coffee 75 cents and tea $5 and $3 50 per pound and other things proportionately high, with a limited supply. Very respectfully, yours, D J S

RESOURCES OF OREGON NOT KNOWN EAST.—In a brief [illegible] yesterday with Mr. [illegible] Quinn Thornton, who has just returned from a visit to the Eastern States, he remarked that one of the most striking things he met among the people there was a remarkable degree of ignorance concerning Oregon and the whole coast for that matter. It would seem that after a settlement of over twenty years, our State should be better known among people everywhere in the East. For a year or two the newspapers have been publishing information of one sort and another, and circulars, pamphlets and books in respect to the [illegible] also have been written. We are still under the impression that these are not [illegible] as the tendency of all returned settlers from this State is uniformly to the effect that the people there have read but little or nothing of Oregon. It is clear that to convey a fair knowledge of this State, the people of the East, it will be necessary for us to publish pamphlets of statistics and information, [illegible] supply about every other household in the State. Those heretofore [illegible] newspapers have reached but now and then an individual and besides that they have been very incomplete as to details, while about ninety nine out of each hundred private letters written have only informed the recipients that the weather is now fine, or that "Crops look well," or that "Betsy Jane has got another baby," or something about equally to the purpose. We suggest [illegible] way to send out a million pamphlets containing full, complete and definite details of [illegible] of every kind, with all the statistics attainable. Such work, in Mr. Thornton's estimate, would bring us within two or three years a flood of population.

OREGON MEATS IN SAN FRANCISCO.—The Commercial Herald in its late annual review of the markets has the following in relation to Oregon meats: "From recent [illegible], we are led to believe that more than the usual proportion of her meat supplies will come to market [illegible] and be smoked here. This is a good feature of the trade and we have no doubt will insure to the profit of the Oregonians, as heretofore much of their smoked meat came here in bad [illegible] or insufficiently salted, not to say badly cut, and oftentimes in unmerchantable condition, rendering it necessary to send it to [illegible] to be overhauled, resmoked and packed, thus [illegible] heavy extra expense upon owners, and rendering the business unprofitable and unsatisfactory to all concerned. With increased care and attention upon the part of Oregon packers, and curers they will be large gainers pecuniarily and build up a reputation for their meats second to none in the market. As it is there are a few Oregon brands of sugar-cured meats received here of very high repute, the large demand for which cannot [illegible] even at a handsome advance upon the current market rate of what is called 'standard packers', having daily fresh supplies in local markets where consumers can buy large or small supplies to be delivered direct from the smoke house. In 1868 a considerable bar[illegible] pork and beef came here from Oregon and for the most part gave satisfaction to [illegible] A greater [illegible] will, it is expected, be received from there in 1869."

UP THE COLUMBIA—SNOW AND ICE.—We learn from the office of the O. S. N. Co. that telegrams were received yesterday afternoon from the Cascades and Dalles announcing the prevalence of decidedly wintry weather at both places, and farther up the Columbia. At about 4 o'clock, the snow was eleven inches deep at the Cascades and was still falling rapidly. At the same hour it was [illegible] inches deep at the Dalles and still falling. Everybody and his wife was out sleigh riding and having high sport. On Saturday morning the steamer which left Celilo for [illegible] was compelled, after proceeding a short distance [illegible], on account of floating ice. For the same reason no steamer will be despatched from Celilo to-day. River travel is therefore suspended, for the present, above that point. The telegrams do not state the temperature at either of the places named.

THE NEW THEATER.—A large audience was out last night to witness the last performance of "The Streets of New York." As heretofore, the several characters were well represented. Mr. Bates threw more life into the [illegible] of Badger than heretofore—an improvement [illegible] the audience recognized by frequently repeated [illegible]. The "make up" of Miss Nellie Cummings was the most noticeable thing in the play. We doubt if she ever appeared in a character to which she came so near doing justice as that of Mrs. Puffy. It would be trite to say that Mrs. Bates' personation of Lucy Fairweather [illegible] always plays well. It has been a long [illegible] we have seen an audience better satisfied than [illegible] of last night.

[illegible] FOR VICTORIA.—The following persons are booked for passage to Victoria per steamer Active: Mrs. [illegible] and two children, Mr. Burnett, G. S. Mansfield, [illegible] Hinsen, W. H. Livermore, John Wilson, C. Thornton, [illegible], H. W. Fuller, P. Thayer, T. R. Douglass, F. M. [illegible] and wife, Dan'l McDougal and wife, D. R. Green, R. [illegible], L. Henry, Col. Johnson, F. Hol[illegible], G. Hayes, Robt. Wilson, J. B. Robinson and wife, Miss Nellie [illegible], Miss M. Field, Geo. B. Wright, Col. M. A. Ren[illegible], W. F. & Co.'s Messenger and two in the steerage. The [illegible] also takes one thousand head of sheep, and one [illegible] and twenty five tons of freight.

A HARD ROAD TO TRAVEL.—A correspondent at Oakland, Douglas county, under date of Jan. 20th writes: "The travel through this part of the country has almost stopped on account of small pox. Houses along the public road refuse to keep travelers. The road through [illegible] and Rogue river valleys, must be a 'hard road to travel' when passengers cannot obtain admission to any house. The people are right enough to use proper [illegible] measures, but it strikes us they are over[illegible] themselves in this matter.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT—DEADY, J.—The following proceedings were had in this Court yesterday:

United States vs. H. W. Davis et al, on motion of U. S. [illegible] under direction from the Auditor of Postoffice [illegible], ordered that satisfaction of the judgment [illegible] rendered be entered upon payment of all the costs of the suit.

John B. Lamb et al vs. J. A. Davenport et als in equity. [illegible] in hearing the evidence; continued until [illegible]

[illegible] COAST ALMANAC.—We have received from Mr. [illegible] Langley of San Francisco a copy of his "Pacific Almanac and Year Book of facts, for 1869."—[illegible] of interesting and useful information upon [illegible] in which our people have a concern. [illegible] variety of subjects treated, and reliability of [illegible] is undoubtedly the most valuable work of [illegible] ever published on this coast. Every business [illegible] man should have a copy.

[illegible] OF WOOL.—We find in the Commercial Herald [illegible] San Francisco, a statement that the receipts of wool from Oregon, during the year 1868 was only 3,534 bales, equal to 707,200 pounds. This amount is less than was [illegible] the previous year by 157,600 pounds and is far below the total shipment of any year since 1864. The [illegible] ought in the market an average of 14 to 20c according to quality.

[illegible] CARD.—We call attention to the card of Dr. [illegible] Hatch in our advertising columns. The Doctor [illegible] of agreeable presence and manner, and comes [illegible] recommended in his profession, being a regular graduate of Harvard as well as of an English uni[illegible]. After a successful practice of ten years past in [illegible], he comes to reside in Portland, and we doubt not will meet a hearty support. His office is in Carter's [illegible], corner of First and Alder streets.

SMALL POX.—The inquiry is frequently received, "Have you any small pox in Portland?" We answer that we have made frequent inquiry of physicians and [illegible] most likely to know, and the invariable reply is [illegible] badly in the negative. There has been no case [illegible] within the last five or six weeks and both the men [illegible] sick with small pox are now well.

[illegible] BRIDGE.—The new bridge across Tanner [illegible] at B street was completed last week. About six [illegible] feet of B street has been graded and about one [illegible] feet of the crosslaying has been laid down. With [illegible] force the whole job of opening the street and [illegible] can be completed in about ten good working days.

[illegible] BROKEN DOWN.—The floor in Mrs. C. Levy's [illegible] recently gave way in consequence of the decay of [illegible], rendering it necessary to remove all her [illegible] and to put down a new floor. Workmen were engaged upon the job yesterday. The building is only a [illegible] years old.

[illegible].—We invite the attention of all the charitable [illegible] of Portland to the correspondence published this [illegible] relating to a concert to be given at Philharmonic Hall, next Thursday evening, by Prof. H. Guild, [illegible] others for the benefit of charitable societies of [illegible] city.

POSTPONEMENT OF SAILING.—The sailing of the steamer [illegible] has been postponed to Wednesday, 27th at 4 o'clock P. M. The sailing of the Active has been further [illegible] till 11 o'clock P. M. of the same day in consequence of the rough weather prevailing.

[illegible] IN THE MOUNTAINS.—Reports from Burnt river [illegible] that the snow on the mountains is about four and a half feet deep, and that an ample supply of water for [illegible] purposes is thereby assured for the Spring months.

PETITION FOR PARDON.—A petition is being circulated in this city and will be circulated elsewhere as we are informed, for the pardon of E. H. Randall. It has already been numerously signed.

[illegible].—We learn that Tom Tafant, late of [illegible] Ward and others will soon open Oro Fino [illegible] some other commodious hall for a season of [illegible] amusements.

[illegible] OF PRODUCE.—Since the first rise in the river, [illegible] has been coming down in a regular flood as [illegible] the whole Willamette valley had spilled its con[illegible]

[illegible] BEARING QUARTZ.—Specimens of gold bearing [illegible] from Burnt river said to be worth $2,000 per ton, have been recently brought to this city.

THE RIVER which during the late cold weather, fell [illegible] near the low water mark of summer, is again rising and some drift is floating.

GEN. BUTLER'S NEW YEAR'S CALLS

The fact that General Butler called upon the President New Year's day is much commented upon in social and political circles. Some institute comparisons between his course and that of General Grant, forgetting that the differences in the first case are only of a political while in the latter case they are of a personal character. Quite a buzz of excitement was apparent when General Butler entered the reception room and advanced toward the President. He extended his hand in the most cordial manner, and it was as cordially received by Mr. Johnson. A few moments casual conversation was indulged in, after which General Butler cordially bade the President good day and passed over to Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Glover with whom he also entered into friendly conversation and subsequently left the White House. Later in the day General Butler accompanied by Chief Justice Carter of the District Supreme Court visited the residences of the Cabinet Ministers and others. He was received with especial cordiality by Mr. Seward, with whom he conversed for some time. At Attorney General Evarts' residence some one asked General Butler about his interview with the President, which he talked of it very freely and remarked that he had had no quarrel with Mr. Johnson socially and he could conceive no reason why political differences should interfere with social enjoyments.

BOSTON'S PROPOSED CONCERT

Mr. P. S. Gilmore, the famous band leader of Boston, is deep in the preparation of a monster vocal and instrumental concert that shall eclipse all the former efforts of the world in a musical way. It is to take place on Boston Common, in June next and will consist of an orchestra of one thousand instruments, the choruses to be given by ten thousand select vocalists from all parts of the country. The choruses are to be supported by the basso of artillery, discharged by electricity. Mr. Gilmore has already secured 1,500 subscribers at $100 each and is busy in securing members of the orchestra and chorus. Hints of this have been given by the Boston Press, but we get these facts from a gentleman who is well informed as to what is going on in musical circles.

ARKANSAS MATTERS

Gens. Babcock and Porter, of Gen. Grant's Staff, reached Little Rock Thursday evening Friday morning they had a lengthy conference with Governor Clayton. It is understood that their business in Arkansas was not, as alleged, the investigation of the rebel charges against the militia. It is likely General Grant has heard too much of rebel outcries against the loyal Government of the South to be deceived.

Late News Brevities

[New York papers, Jan. 4th.]

Mary Waters died in St. Louis recently, aged 102 years.

In New York 236,574 head of cattle were slaughtered in 1868.

A Missouri thief recently stole a tombstone from a railroad station.

Liverpool is building three parks, and spent $1,619,000 upon them last year.

New Orleans people who could pay $1 per box [illegible] luxuriated upon strawberries December 21st.

The manuscript of a new French dictionary designed to supersede all others, is in the printer's hands.

The small pox exists to a considerable extent among the crowded tenement houses of New York.

They have found out in Prussia a still more effective weapon than the needle gun. It is called the M[illegible] rifle.

Portland, Maine, has a citizen who has predicted a second deluge, and to get ready for it is spending all he is worth in building a Noah's Ark.

Miss Emily Faithfull, one of the prominent women's rights speakers of Great Britain, says that out of 6,000,000 women in England 2,500,000 are unmarried.

Mr. Harrison Ainsworth, the author of "Jack Sheppard," &c., has been granted a pension of £100 a year by the Queen of England, upon the recommendation of Mr. Disraeli. Mr. Ainsworth is now 64 years of age.

A memorial, signed by a hundred members of the English Parliament has been presented to Minister Johnson requesting him to urge the American Government to adopt a penny postage between the United States and Great Britain.

The Freedmen's Bureau is now blotted out excepting the department of education, which still continues in existence. A year ago Congress provided for its termination with the year 1868, and though an effort was made a few weeks ago to secure its continuance, no action was taken in the subject before the holidays, and so it has expired by limitation. No attempt will be made to revive it when Congress again meets, and consequently its history can now be written.

Now that it is settled that there will be a March session of the Forty-first Congress the Republican candidates for the Speakership are forming their combinations. The applicants in order of their strength, are Blaine, of Maine, Dawes, of Massachusetts, Garfield, of Ohio, Cullum, of Illinois, Kelly, of Pennsylvania, Banks, of Massachusetts. Of this list Blaine and Dawes are the only two who appear to have anything like a chance, and Mr. Blaine by all probabilities, has the inside track.

PIRATES
SAIL UNDER FALSE COLORS!!

THE BEST EVIDENCE OF THE VALUE OF AN article may be found in the fact of its having numerous imitators. Every fine poem has its parodies; every meritorious literary work is subject to plagiarisms, every successful play has been burlesqued, every honest man has his detractors, every genuine dollar has been counterfeited and every valuable medicinal preparation has its vile imitations. The proprietors of have encountered the usual experience in this respect. Such has been the success of this sterling preparation that all inferior articles of the kind have virtually been driven from the market. The concocters of these [illegible] ... finding that this new Tonic has exactly met the public want and that no further demand exists for inferior preparations have resorted to the dishonest expedient of imitating either the name or the style of label of that which have been duly secured by the laws of the State to the proprietors of the I X L Bitters.

In justice to ourselves, as well as to the public who may be deceived by these nefarious practices, we hereby notify all parties guilty of infringement on our rights as well as those who have been buying up our old bottles in order to palm off their own nostrums as the genuine article, that they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

For the further protection of consumers we would state that we never sell our Bitters in bulk, but always by the case. Look for our Trade Mark on every bottle and [illegible] the article otherwise than direct from us. Be sure to get Dr. Henley's Wild Grape Root I X L Bitters, and don't allow yourself to be imposed upon with an inferior article.

WOLFE'S
CELEBRATED
SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS.

TO THE CITIZENS OF OREGON:

I BEG LEAVE TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE citizens of [illegible] to my celebrated AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS as a medicinal Diet Drink of eminently salutary qualities, manufactured by myself exclusively at my factory at Schiedam, in Holland.

In Gravel, Gout, Rheumatism, in Obstructions of the Bladder and Kidneys, its effects are prompt, decided and invariably reliable.

It is now some twenty years since the Proprietor first introduced it to the American public, and during that time he has received over 3,000 letters from physicians, [illegible] it as the purest liquor they have ever used in their practice.

It is made from barley of the finest quality selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated growing districts in Bavaria, with the essence of the [illegible] juniper berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and dangerous effects produced on the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers, new settlers and all unacclimated persons are peculiarly liable—the

SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS

Will be found absolutely infallible, while in cases of dropsy, general obstruction of the kidneys, diseases of the [illegible] dyspepsia and general debility it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in pint and quart bottles in cases with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac simile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.

ARE YOU WEAK, DEBILITATED, NERVOUS? Is your sleep disturbed? Do you have palpitation of the heart, or an inclination to melancholy? Does your system require a prompt DIURETIC, which will be [illegible]

Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps.

Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps
Is sold by all Grocers and Apothecaries

Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps
Is recommended by all the Medical Faculty.

Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps
Is imitated and counterfeited and purchasers will have to use caution in purchasing.

WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS,
Imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE, of New York, expressly for medicinal and private use.

WHAT DO YOU DRINK?

Medical Revenge

I loved Sal, and she knew it well,
  She [illegible] a careful diagnosis;
And [illegible] like a [illegible] his bed
  Her smile in very [illegible] doses.
I sent her notes and [illegible] hymns
  With [illegible]
At [illegible] any times
  [illegible]

She [illegible] me—I [illegible] by the way
  [illegible] I would [illegible]
[illegible] would [illegible] day
  A [illegible] eternal fever
[illegible] I knew,
  Took stimulants and then [illegible];
[illegible]
  The [illegible] was one eternal [illegible]

I had a rival who is [illegible]
  The fact I must, perforce, acknowledge—
A homeopathist was he—
  A wretch who never passed the college;
And though I often called him quack,
  He used to say how much I [illegible] him
But laughed at me behind my back,
  With her—I knew it, for I caught him.

We are good friends in outward guise,
  For in the village we were [illegible],
And to such heights of friendship [illegible] we
  We even took each other's mixtures!
Of that arrangement I'd the best,
  His globules were a harmless present,
But the poor fellow, if confessed,
  My compounds were by no means pleasant.

We used to take long walks with her—
  We two that loved her to distraction—
And pleasant smiles her lips would stir
  To us 'twas hardly satisfaction.
When incompatibles agree,
  And soda isn't riled by acid!
At that time—not till then—shall we
  Agree to love her and be placid.

So things went on—the end drew near;
  They came—one more—her face was prouder—
He said to him that he felt queer,
  I rose and waved a Seidlitz powder.
A powder wrapped in papers two
  I gave him in the loved one's presence;
He took the white one, then the blue,
  And died a death of effervescence!

"PLAIN SHIRTS" AND PLANCHETTE.—A gentleman residing in a suburban town, called, to his door, the other evening, by an energetic pull of the bell, found the Irish servant of a neighbor, who delivered herself as follows:

"If ye plaze, Mr. Cooker, master wud like the loan of your plain shirt."

"My plain shirt!" said the puzzled Cooker, "what the deuce does he want a shirt for?"

"Faith, I do not know, surr," said the domestic, "only I heard the missus say she thought she could make the plain shirt move if she put her hands on it."

"What!" screamed Mrs. Cooke, who had been listening to the conversation through the crack of the parlor door, "put her hands on your plain shirt?" I would like to see her about it; the hussy!"

Cooker grinned, and then exploded in a shout of laughter. As soon as he could recover, he turned to his excited spouse, and said:

"Don't get exalted my dear, but hand Biddy the Planchette from the parlor; I think that is what she wants."

"Yes, sur," said Biddy, "the bit of board and the pencil, wid the divil in 'em;" which proved to be the care.

An indignant wife recently visited an Indiana judge and solicited his authority in compelling the return of a truant husband.

"But, my dear madam," said the bashful official, "I can't make him come back."

"An' what's the reason ye can't I'd like to know?"

"Why, he is a free man, and can go where he pleases."

"An' can he do all that, ye say?"

"Certainly, but then you can get a divorce."

"An' allow him to go with the creature when ever he pleases?"

"Yes."

There was an expression of indignant surprise on the woman's face as she inquired:

"Was ye ever a mother, Judge? Did ye ever have any children?"

The Judge thought he never had.

"Then don't be after talking to me about a divorce," and she swept indignantly out of the office.

An aged spinster, descanting upon the annoyance of children the other day, remarked, "I can't bear children." A very motherly old lady, hearing the remark, replied: "If you could, perhaps you would love them better."

"Doctor, do you think tight lacing is bad for the consumption?" "Not at all, madam; it's what it lives on."

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

Is WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered. It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the [illegible] in which it has been brought into [illegible]. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eye no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE,	NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE,	G. R. WARD,
MRS. MONTGOMERY,	JOHN M. HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER,	ROB'T RAMSEY,

And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.

CHANGE OF NAME!

MERCADO & CO., SUCCESSORS TO Mercado & Seully have been obliged for their own protection and the safety of the public, to change the name of their celebrated Bitters to

MERCADO'S
Native California Wine
BITTERS

Whereupon the following affidavit in an injunction suit [illegible] pending between Mercado & Seully, plaintiffs, and [illegible], defendant.

P. [illegible], being duly sworn, says: "That the article known as [illegible] California Wine Bitters was manufactured by Mercado & Seully, about the month of March, 1861, without the said name of the Brothers having any concern in the formula thereof." The deponent has always known and considered said Mercado & Seully as the Sole Proprietors of the [illegible] California Wine Bitters."

Notwithstanding the above affidavit the said P. [illegible] is putting up a compound under the name of [illegible] California Wine Bitters, representing it to be the same as our celebrated Bitters which we have been manufacturing and selling in immense quantities since 1860, and also affixing a nearly similar label to that used on our genuine Wine Bitters. BE NOT DECEIVED! Send for

NATIVE CALIFORNIA WINE BITTERS,

And you will obtain the same popular beverage so favorably known since 1860. Beware of Counterfeits! Purchasers of our Wine Bitters are requested to observe the familiar old yellow label and see that the words, "MERCADO & SEULLY, SAN FRANCISCO," are engraved on the Government stamp pasted over the cork of each bottle. This is the only effectual security against the counterfeit imitations.

NOTES.

Proposals must be to carry the mail with "celerity, certainty, and security," using the terms of the law, and they must be guaranteed by two responsible persons, certified to as such by a postmaster or judge of a court of record.

No pay will be made for trips not performed, and for each of such omissions not satisfactorily explained three times the pay of the trip may be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connections with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be satisfactorily explained, for neglecting to take the mail from or into a postoffice, for suffering it to be injured, robbed, or lost; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running vehicles on the route. The Postmaster General may annul the contract for disobeying the post office laws, or the instructions of the Department. He may alter the schedule of departures and arrivals, and also order an increase of service by allowing therefor a pro rata increase on the contract pay. He may also curtail or discontinue the service in whole or in part, at a pro rata decrease of pay, allowing one month's extra compensation on the amount of service dispensed with. Bids should be addressed to the "Second Assistant Postmaster General," superscribed "Proposals, State of Oregon," and sent by mail.

For forms of proposal, &c., and other information, see advertisement of this date, in pamphlet form, at the principal post offices.
ALEX. W. RANDALL,
j11dlaw4w Postmaster General.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

Weekly Oregonian.

FOR 1869.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent, the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to everything of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,

AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest.

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS

OF

Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

TELEGRAMS FROM THE EAST AND EUROPE

are published as full as in the California journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs, both politically and commercially from an Oregon standpoint.

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best at hand.

EXTENDED AND RELIABLE

Commercial Reports

are furnished every week, giving the Financial, Dry Goods, Hardware, and General Market Reports of Portland, and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets. These reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State.

In every department it will be, as it has been, the foremost in the State in the field of journalism. Being firmly established, it will go forward with confidence, making new plans for improvement and usefulness, and hopes to gain [illegible] circulation and support.

TERMS:

One Year	$3 00.
Six Months	2 00.
Three Months	1 00.

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN has been a favorite paper for sending to friends in the East. It will be mailed from the office at subscription rates.

Subscribers will find on each paper, with their name, the date on which their subscriptions expire, as entered on our books. In renewing, the name of subscriber and post office should be distinctly written.

All papers are discontinued at the end of the time for which they have been paid, the date of which is always printed with the name each week.

REMIT BY MAIL AT OUR RISK, in presence of Postmaster, or pay to the nearest authorized agent.

We ask our friends to aid us in extending the circulation of the OREGONIAN in every direction.

HENRY L. PITTOCK,
Publisher and Proprietor,
Portland, Oregon.
